Welcome to S. Bart's, Regent Park!

Good Friday is the day which invites us more than any other to “enter into the thicket of the trials and pains... of the Son of God.” (S. John of the Cross, Spiritual Canticle, 35, 9), and not only with the abstract consideration of the mind, but also with the practical disposition of the will to accept suffering voluntarily, in order to unite and assimilate ourselves to the Crucified. By suffering with Him, we shall understand His sufferings better and have a better comprehension of His love for us, for “the purest suffering brings with it the most intimate and the purest understanding” (ibid., 36, 12); and “no one feels more deeply in his heart the passion of Christ than one who has suffered something similar” (Imitation of Christ, II, 12, 4). With these dispositions let us accompany our Lord during his last day on earth.

THE FIRST PART OF THE LITURGY: THE SYNAXIS

PLEASE KNEEL WITH THE SERVERS AS THE CELEBRANT PROSTRATES HIMSELF BEFORE THE ALTAR.

PLEASE BE SEATED AS THE LECTOR READS THE FIRST LESSON.

The First Lesson: Hosea 5: 15b - 6:6

THUS saith the Lord: In their affliction they will seek me early: Come, and let us return unto the Lord: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up. After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight. Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the Lord: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth. O Ephraim, what shall I do unto thee? O Judah, what shall I do unto thee? for your goodness is as a morning cloud, and as the early dew it goeth away. Therefore have I hewed them by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of my mouth: and thy judgments are as the light that goeth forth. For I desired mercy, and not sacrifice; and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings.

CANTOR: O Lord, I have heard thy speech, and was afraid: *
I have considered thy works, and was confounded.

ALL: O LORD, revive thy work in the midst of the years: *
In the midst of the years make it known.

CANTOR: In the time of confusion of my soul: *
In wrath, remember mercy.

ALL: GOD CAME from Te-man: *
And his Holy One from the thick woods of the moun-tain.

CANTOR: His glory covered the heavens: *

ALL: And the earth was full of his praise.

Let us pray. PLEASE STAND.

Let us bow the knee. PLEASE KNEEL.

℞ Arise. PLEASE STAND.

ALMIGHTY God, we beseech thee graciously to behold this thy family, for which our Lord Jesus Christ was contented to be betrayed, and given up into the hands of wicked men, and to suffer death upon the cross; who now liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end.

℞ Amen.

Let us pray. PLEASE STAND.

Let us bow the knee. PLEASE KNEEL.

℞ Arise. PLEASE STAND.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, by whose Spirit the whole body of the Church is governed and sanctified:

Receive our supplications and prayers, which we offer before thee for all estates of men in thy holy Church, that every member of the same, in his vocation and ministry, may truly and godly serve thee; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, world without end.

℞ Amen.

The Epistle: Hebrews 10: 1-25 (PLEASE BE SEATED.)

THE law of Moses, having as it were a shadow of good things which were to come, but not the very image of those things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered continually, year by year, make the comers thereunto perfect; for then would they not have ceased to be offered? since the worshippers, once they had been purified, should have had no more consciousness of sins. But in those sacrifices a remembrance of sins is made over again every year. For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins. Wherefore, when he cometh into the world, he saith,

*Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not,
But a body hast thou prepared me:
In burnt-offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure:
Then said I, Lo, I come
(In the volume of the book it is written of me)
To do thy will, O God.*

Above when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt-offerings and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein, (which are offered according to the law;) then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God: he taketh away the first, that he may establish the second. By the which will we are sanctified, through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. And every priest standeth daily in his ministry offering many times those same sacrifices which can never take away sins; but this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down at the right hand of God, waiting from henceforth till his enemies be made his footstool. For by one single offering he hath perfected for ever those who are sanctified; whereof the Holy Spirit also is a witness to us. For after saying,

*This is the covenant that I will make with them
After those days, saith the Lord,
I will put my laws into their hearts,
And in their minds will I write them; then saith he,
And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.*

Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin. Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh; and having an High Priest over the house of God: let us draw near with a true heart, in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised;) and let us consider one another to provoke unto love, and to good works; not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.

The Passion Gospel: S. John 18: 33 (PLEASE STAND)

(THE PASSION GOSPEL IS PERFORMED BY THE GOSPELLERS OF THE PASSION)

The Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to John.

THEN Pilate entered into the judgement-hall again, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the King of the Jews? Jesus answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me? Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done? Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now my kingdom is not from hence. Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king: to this end was I born and came into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice. Pilate saith unto him, What is truth?

And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, I find in him no fault at all; but ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews? Then cried they all again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.

Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him. And the soldiers platted a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple robe, and came unto him, and said, Hail, King of the Jews: and they smote him with their hands. Pilate therefore went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I find no fault in him. Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pilate saith unto them, Behold the man! When the chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him. The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God. When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid; and went again into the judgement-hall, and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? But Jesus gave him no answer. Then saith Pilate unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee? Jesus answered, Thou couldest have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath the greater sin. And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou let this man go, thou art not Caesar's friend: whosoever maketh himself a king speaketh against Caesar. When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the judgement-seat, in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha. And it was the preparation of the passover, and about the sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jews, Behold your King! But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Caesar. Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified: and they took Jesus, and led him away.

And he, bearing his cross, went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew, Golgotha: where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst. And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross; and the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS. This title then read many of the Jews: for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latin. Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am the King of the Jews. Pilate answered, What I have written, I have written. Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also his coat: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout. They said therefore among themselves, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose It shall be: that the Scripture might be fulfilled, which saith,

*They parted my raiment among them,
And for my vesture they did cast lots.*

These things therefore the soldiers did. Now there stood by the cross of Jesus, his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, Woman, behold thy son. Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother. And from that hour that disciple took her unto his own home. After this, Jesus, knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst. Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a sponge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth. When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost.

The Holy Gospel: S. John 19: 21 (PLEASE STAND)

THE PRIEST SINGS THE FOLLOWING IN THE GOSPEL TONE:

The Jews therefore, because it was the preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath day, (for that sabbath day was an high day,) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. Then came the soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him. But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs. But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came there out blood and water. And he that saw it bare record, and his record is true. And he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe. For these things were done that the Scripture should be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken. And again another Scripture saith, They shall look on him whom they pierced.

Still may thy power with us avail
To give new virtue to the saint,
And pardon to the penitent.*

CELEBRANT: Let us pray.

As our Saviour Christ hath commanded and taught us,
we are bold to say,

Our Father,

Who art in heaven, Hallowed by thy Name;

Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done,

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread;

And forgive us our trespasses,

As we forgive them that trespass against us;

And lead us not into temptation,

PEOPLE: But de-liv-er us from e-vil.

CELEBRANT: Deliver us, O Lord, we beseech thee, from all evils, past, present, and to come: and at the intercession of the blessed and glorious ever Virgin Mary, Mother of God, with thy blessed Apostles, Peter and Paul, and with Andrew, and all thy Saints, graciously grant us peace in our days: that by thine availing mercy, we may ever both be free from sin and safe from all distress. Through the same Jesus

Confession and Absolution

and intend to lead the new life, following the commandments of God, and walking from henceforth in his holy ways:
Draw near with faith, and take this holy Sacrament

Almighty God,

ALL: Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Maker of all things, Judge of all men: We acknowledge and confess our manifold sins and wickedness, Which we from time to time most grievously have committed, By thought, word, and deed, Against thy Divine Majesty. We do earnestly repent, And are heartily sorry for these our misdoings.
Have mercy upon us, most merciful Father; For thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, Forgive us all that is past;
And grant that we may ever hereafter Serve and please thee
In newness of life, To the honour and glory of thy Name;
Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CELEBRANT: Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who of his great mercy hath promised forgiveness of sins to all them that with hearty repentance and true faith turn unto him: Have mercy upon you; pardon and deliver you from all your sins; confirm and strengthen you in all goodness; and bring you to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

℞ Amen.

*THEN SHALL THE CELEBRANT FIRST RECEIVE THE BODY OF CHRIST AND THE PARTICLE OF THE HOST WITH THE WINE.
HE THEN TURNS TO SHOW THE BLESSED SACRAMENT TO THE PEOPLE, WHO LOOK UP AND MAKE THE SIGN OF THE CROSS.*

CELEBRANT: Behold the Lamb of God, behold him that taketh away the sin of the world.

ALL SAY TOGETHER THREE TIMES, STRIKING THE BREAST AT EACH BEGINNING:

ALL: Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof, but speak the word only, and my soul shall be healed.

Communion Motet

Crux fidelis

*Crux fidelis inter omnes, arbor una nobilis,
nulla silva talem profert fronde,
flore, germine.*

Dulce lignum, dulces clavos, dulce pondus sustinet. Amen.

*Faithful Cross, above all other,
one and only noble tree,
none in foliage, none in blossom;
none in fruit thy peer may be.
Sweetest wood and sweetest iron;
sweetest weight is hung on thee. Amen.*

DURING THE DISTRIBUTION OF COMMUNION THE CHOIR SINGS PSALM 22.

WHEN ALL HAVE RECEIVED COMMUNION, THE CELEBRANT CLEANSSES HIS HANDS.

THE CELEBRANT AND SERVERS RETIRE TO THE SACRISTY IN SILENCE.

THE PEOPLE LEAVE IN SILENCE.

MUSIC NOTE:

The choral music for our Good Friday solemnities reflects the stark nature of the liturgy through its sparing use and its dignified simplicity. Today, we do not hear the organ at all, since it fell silent last night at the beginning of the Gloria, and so the oldest music of the Christian church, Gregorian Chant, comes to the forefront.

In preparation for the Veneration of the Cross, we will sing the chant melody of the Reproaches, luminously harmonized by John Botari (All Saints, Saskatoon). The initial part of the Reproaches, the Trisagion (Holy God, Holy Mighty, Holy and Immortal, have mercy upon us), points to a very ancient origin, in which the Cantor sang in Greek (the ritual language of Christianity until sometime in the 4th century), and the people responded in Latin. During the veneration, the choir will sing Healey Willan's setting of 'Faithful Cross' (1938), composed to be sung in alternation with verses of the chant hymn Pange Lingua, creating a seamless dialogue between the distant past and our present moment.
