Devotional Societies at S. Bart's

OUR LADY OF WALSINGHAM: We are in the process of re-founding this organisation, which was once an important stimulus to devotion and sound doctrine in our parish. A cell of Our Lady of Walsingham would mean a formal tie with the Holy House and Shrine at Walsingham, Norfolk, the foremost Marian shrine in the Anglican World, and our Shrine would be listed as amongst affiliated shrines. We will meet this coming Friday, 31 May, at 7 p.m. to pray the Joyful Mysteries of the Rosary together.

THE CONFRATERNITY OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT will meet on Friday, 28 June at 6:00 p.m. to sing Vespers of the Blessed Sacrament, followed by Benediction. All are welcome! (Meetings will not be held during July and August, but will resume in September.)

NOSTRA PHILOSOPHIA: Christian Philosophy Reading Group

On Saturday afternoons, we will meet to discuss Christian and non-Christian philosophical texts that help us to think our Christian Faith and life. On Saturday, 1 June, we will meet at 1:00 p.m. in the Library of the Imperial Pub at 54 Dundas St. E. (upstairs). We will be discussing Eric Perl's Theophany: The Neoplatonic Philosophy of Dionysius the Areopagite, which situates the thought of this fifth-century Christian within his philosophical context of late pagan and early Christian Neoplatonisms. All are welcome; if you plan to join us, it would help us plan table reservations if you could contact either Fr Hannam or Quinn Kiervin-Starkey (quinn.kiervin@gmail.com).

✠ DEVOTIONAL VIGNETTE ✠

WHEN WE TRY TO PRAY, WHAT HAPPENS? Initially, we experience emptiness, obscurity, distraction. Then perhaps we have a dim awareness that the activity of prayer, which at first we take to be of our making, is actually the activity of Another. We have the sense of being “prayed in”; we realize that on the deepest level it is not we who pray, but God who is praying in us. And God who so prays within us is specifically God the Trinity. We find ourselves caught up into a conversation that is already in progress—a divine conversation, the eternal dialogue of the Trinity. We each hear God the Father saying to us personally, “You are my beloved Son”; we become children in the Son, and through the Spirit we make our own filial response, “Abba, Father.” Such is the significance of the doctrine of the Trinity. God is love—not self-love but mutual, shared love. God is exchange, self-giving, solidarity. If that is indeed what the doctrine of the Trinity is saying, then manifestly it is no mere piece of abstract speculation, devoid of practical content, but something that has startling, revolutionary consequences for our own personhood. It is concerned with matters of life and death—of eternal life and eternal death.

Metropolitan of Diokleia,

✠ POETRY CORNER ✠

TRINITY SUNDAY

by Malcolm Guite (1957-)

In the Beginning, not in time or space,
But in the quick before both space and time,
In Life, in Love, in co-inherent Grace,
In three in one and one in three, in rhyme,
In music, in the whole creation story,
In His own image, His imagination,
The Triune Poet makes us for His glory,
And makes us each the other's inspiration.
He calls us out of darkness, chaos, chance,
To improvise a music of our own,
To sing the chord that calls us to the dance,
Three notes resounding from a single tone,
To sing the End in whom we all begin;
Our God beyond, beside us and within.
