NOSTRA PHILOSOPHIA:
Christian Philosophy Reading Group

On Saturday afternoons, we will meet to discuss Christian and non-Christian philosophical texts that help us to think our Christian Faith and life. On Saturday, 15 June, we will meet at 1:00 p.m. at Harbord House, 124 Harbord Street. We will be discussing Eric Perl’s Theophany: The Neoplatonic Philosophy of Dionysius the Areopagite, which situates the thought of this fifth-century Christian within his philosophical context of late pagan and early Christian Neoplatonisms. All are welcome; if you plan to join us, it would help us plan table reservations if you could contact either Fr Hannam or Quinn Kiervin-Starkey (quinn.kiervin@gmail.com).

PARISH OUTING: “The Ever-Present Origin” at S. Paul’s Bloor. All those interested are invited to email stbartsanglican@gmail.com. Unwaged parishioners’ attendance can be subsidised, either wholly or in part, by the Vicar.

The Canadian Christian Meditation Community (CCMC)
invites you to attend

The Ever-Present Origin

July 2, 2024 7:00–9:00pm

St. Paul’s on Bloor, 227 Bloor Street East, Toronto

Speaker,
Fr. Laurence Freeman

Under the stresses of modern living, we easily become uprooted and scattered, living fragmentary and distracted lives and yet, even when living in this way, we are not far from the kingdom, the “ever-present origin” which is the presence of God in all places and at all times.

Meditation re-roots us in this experience of real presence. It is the gift we practice and the gift we can share. There is no greater gift for us to share with the world today.

Light snacks and refreshments will be served.

✠ DEVOTIONAL VIGNETTE ✠

FOR SACRED HEART

AFTER WE HAVE CONTEMPLATED THE EUCHARIST, a gift crowning all the gifts of the love of Jesus for men, the Church invites us to give direct consideration to the love of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, the source and cause of all His gifts. We may call the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus the feast of His love for us. “Behold this Heart which has so loved men,” the Church says to us on this day, showing us that it is truly “in the Heart of Christ, wounded by our sins, that God has deigned to give us the infinite treasures of His love” (cf. Collect). Today’s liturgy inspired with this thought, reviews the immense benefits we owe to the love of Christ and sings a hymn in praise of His love. “Cogitationes cordis ejus,” chants the Introit of the Mass: “The thoughts of His Heart” – the Heart of Jesus – “are to all generations: to deliver them from death, to feed them in time of famine.” The Heart of Jesus is always in search of souls to save, to free from the snares of sin, to wash in His Blood, to feed with His Body. The Heart of Jesus is always living in the Eucharist to satisfy the hunger of all who long for Him, to welcome and console all those who, disillusioned by the vicissitudes of life, take refuge in Him, seeking peace and refreshment. Jesus Himself is our support on the hard road of life. “Take up My yoke upon you and learn of Me, because I am meek and humble of heart, and you shall find rest for your souls, Alleluia.” It is impossible to eliminate sorrow from our life; yet if we live for Jesus we can suffer in peace and find in the Heart of Jesus repose for our weary soul.

✦ POETRY CORNER ✦

“LOVE (II)”

by George Herbert (1593-1633)

Immortal Heat, O let Thy greater flame
Attract the lesser to it; let those fires
Which shall consume the world first make it tame,
And kindle in our hearts such true desires.
As may consume our lusts, and make Thee way:
Then shall our hearts pant Thee, then shall our brain
All her invention on Thine altar lay,
And there in hymns send back Thy fire again.
Our eyes shall see Thee, which before saw dust,
Dust blown by wit, till that they both were blind:
Thou shalt recover all Thy goods in kind,
Who wert disseized by usurping lust:
All knees shall bow to Thee; all wits shall rise,
And praise Him Who did make and mend our eyes.
