From the Music Director

Today marks the end of the choir season for the summer. Our singers will return for our Patronal Mass on the morning of Saturday, 24 August, and then will begin next season on Back to Church Sunday in September. The choral programme has reached new heights this year, thanks to the talent and dedication of our choristers, who rehearse for three hours a week (over 120 hours since September), and sing many weekday liturgies in addition to Sundays. This season, the choir sang 54 liturgies; 15 mass settings; 48 motets, and provided harmony for over 140 hymns. My sincere thanks is due to each member of the choir, and to Fr David for such unfailing commitment to the liturgy of S. Bart's. - Katherine Hill

The Ever-Present Origin

July 2, 2024 7:00–9:00pm

St. Paul’s on Bloor, 227 Bloor Street East, Toronto

Speaker,
Fr. Laurence Freeman

Under the stresses of modern living, we easily become uprooted and scattered, living fragmentary and distracted lives and yet, even when living in this way, we are not far from the kingdom, the “ever-present origin” which is the presence of God in all places and at all times.

Meditation re-roots us in this experience of real presence. It is the gift we practice and the gift we can share. There is no greater gift for us to share with the world today.

Light snacks and refreshments will be served.

✠ DEVOTIONAL VIGNETTE ✠

TODAY'S LITURGY is a warm invitation to confidence in the merciful love of Jesus. Even from the beginning of the Mass, the Church has us pray thus: "Look toward me and have pity on me, O Lord, for I am desolate and unhappy. See my misery and my sadness, and pardon all my sins" (Introit). A little later we are exhorted: "Cast your care upon the Lord, and He will support you" (Gradual). But how can we justify all this confidence in God, since we are always poor sinners? The Gospel (Luke 15:1-10) explains the grounds for this justification by relating two parables used by Jesus Himself to teach us that we can never have too much confidence in His infinite mercy: the story of the lost sheep and the account of the missing drachma. First He shows us the good shepherd who goes in search of the lost sheep; it is a picture of Jesus coming down from heaven to search for poor human beings lost in the dark caves of sin. In order to find them, rescue them, and bring them back to the sheepfold, He does not hesitate to undergo the greatest sufferings and even death... This is the story of the love of Jesus for all mankind and especially for every individual soul. The story has a beautiful symbolism in the tender figure of the good shepherd, to which Jesus likened Himself. We might say that the image of the good shepherd—which was so greatly loved in the early days of the Church—is the equivalent of that of the Sacred Heart; both are living, concrete expressions of the merciful love of Jesus, and they urge us to go to Him with complete confidence.

✠ POETRY CORNER ✠

“LOVE (III)”

by George Herbert (1593-1633)

Love bade me welcome: yet my soul drew back,
Guilty of dust and sin.
But quick-eyed Love, observing me grow slack
From my first entrance in,
Drew nearer to me, sweetly questioning
If I lacked anything.
“A guest,” I answered, “worthy to be here”:
Love said, “You shall be he.”
“I, the unkind, ungrateful? Ah, my dear,
I cannot look on thee.”
Love took my hand, and smiling did reply,
“Who made the eyes but I?”
“Truth, Lord; but I have marred them; let my shame
Go where it doth deserve.”
“And know you not,” says Love, “who bore the blame?”
“My dear, then I will serve.”
“You must sit down,” says Love, “and taste my meat.”
So I did sit and eat.
