

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

For the week of Sunday 21 July 2024

PLEASE TAKE THIS HOME

*The Sanctuary Lamp burns for the repose of the soul of Susan Johnson.
Rest eternal grant unto her, O Lord.*

PLEASE JOIN US FOR COFFEE HOUR following the 11 o'clock service! We meet in the Parish Hall, down the front stairs and to the right.

SUMMER PASTORAL CARE: Beginning this week and until Tuesday, 20 August, please direct all pastoral emergencies requiring a priest to Father James Shire of St. Thomas's, Huron Street at 808-763-6203. All non-emergency pastoral or parish matters should be directed to the Rev'd Martha Riddell at 647-462-4096 or by email at marthariddell@hotmail.com; or Drew Badgley at 647-654-0443 or by email at drew_badgley@hotmail.com.

SUNDAY SERVICE SCHEDULE: While Father Hannam is on vacation there will be only one service per week, at 11 o'clock on Sunday morning. During July the service will be Sung Mattins with hymns and sermon; in August Sung Mass will return.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS!

Our Patronal Festival, S. Bartholomew's Day, will be celebrated with Procession & Sung Mass on Saturday, 24 August at 10:30 a.m.

BACK TO CHURCH & PARISH GATHERING SUNDAY: Mark your calendars for Sunday, 15 September. This year we will once again make a strong push to bring everyone in our parish back together early in the post-vacation season. To this end, we're encouraging everyone to return to church on this PARISH GATHERING SUNDAY as a sort-of 'new year's resolution' to make gathering with our parish family central to our lives. We'll also be marking on the same day BACK TO CHURCH SUNDAY, on which we encourage every congregant to prayerfully consider inviting one person with little or no contact with the Parish to join them at church. The single most common reason people give for why they don't go to church? No one ever invited me!

FROM THE STEWARDSHIP COMMITTEE: Planning to get away this summer? S. Bart's ministry still needs your support. Pre-authorized donation (PAD) ensures that you can maintain a consistent commitment to the parish year-round and avoid having to "catch up" after your holiday. Of course if you need to pause your pre-authorized donation for any reason an email to Miles Nagamatsu, Parish Treasurer (stbartstoronto@outlook.com), who will put it on hold until you let him know things are back on track, or that you need to adjust your details. If you would like to set up PAD, please email Miles for a fillable PDF form.

NOSTRA PHILOSOPHIA: The Christian Philosophy Reading Group is now on summer hiatus.

'COR AD COR LOQUITUR' The Contemplative Prayer Group is now on summer hiatus.

THE BREAKFAST PROGRAMME is open each Thursday. Doors open at 5:30 a.m. until 8:00 a.m., and hot food is served beginning at 6:00 a.m. We expect the Breakfast Programme to continue till later in July, at which point we will go on hiatus due to construction taking place on site. More details to come!

THE S. BART'S FOOD BANK is now closed for July and August. It will resume regular open hours in the fall. Other local options include:

- St. Ann's Food Bank (120 First Ave), Saturdays, 9 a.m. - 10:30 a.m.

✠ POETRY CORNER ✠

THE GOOD SHEPHERD

by Malcolm Guite (1957-)

When so much shepherding has gone so wrong,
So many pastors hopelessly astray,
The weak so often preyed on by the strong,
So many bruised and broken on the way,
The very name of shepherd seems besmeared,
The fold and flock themselves are torn in half,
The lambs we left to face all we have feared
Are caught between the wasters and the wolf.

Good Shepherd now your flock has need of you,
One finds the fold and ninety-nine are lost
Out in the darkness and the icy dew,
And no one knows how long this night will last.
Restore us; call us back to you by name,
And by your life laid down, redeem our shame.

✠ DEVOTIONAL VIGNETTE ✠

CLOTHE me, O God, with the green garment of hope. A living hope in You gives the soul such ardour, so much courage and longing for the things of eternal life that, by comparison with what it hopes for, all things of the world seem to it to be, as in truth they are, dry, faded, dead, and without value. Give me then, a strong hope, O my God, so that it may strip me of all the vanities of the world, that I may not set my heart upon anything that is in the world, nor hope for anything, but live clad only in the hope of eternal life. Let hope be the helmet of salvation which will protect my head from the wounds of the enemy, and will direct my gaze to heaven allowing me to fix my eyes on You alone, my God. As the eyes of the handmaid are set upon the hands of her mistress, even so are my eyes set upon You, until You take pity on me because of my hope. Grant that I may set my eyes on naught but You, nor be pleased with aught but You alone. Then You will be pleased with me, and I shall be able to say in all truth that I receive from You as much as I hope for.” (S. John of the Cross)

I N order to understand the greatness of Your divinity, O Lord, I need faith; and in order to accomplish anything, I need hope, for if I did not have hope of possessing You some day, I would not have the strength to labour here below... “O God, give me a firm hope, for I cannot be saved unless this virtue is firmly rooted in my soul. I need it in order to implore pardon for my sins and to attain my end. What delight hope gives to my soul, making it hope for what it will one day enjoy in heaven, and by permitting it a partial taste here on earth of what it will savour, understand, and possess eternally, which is You, my God.” (S. Mary Magdalen dei Pazzi)
