✠ SABBATICAL NOTE ✠

TODAY marks the last Sunday before Father Hannam begins his four-month sabbatical. (He will return in time to celebrate our Patronal Festival at the end of August).

Father Hannam has now been pastoring S. Bart's for more than a decade, a period during which we've faced some unexpected challenges (covid!), but during which we've also been encouraged to see growth in both numbers and devotion. Please join together in praying that this period will serve to refresh and inspire our Vicar.

During the coming months, we are grateful to be in the good hands of Father David Brinton, who is known and loved by us already at S. Bart's.

✠ POETRY CORNER ✠

O FRONDENS VIRGA

by Hildegard of Bingen (1098-1179)

O greening branch!
You stand in your nobility
Like the rising dawn.
Rejoice now and exult
And deign to free the fools we are
From our long slavery to ignorance
And hold out your hand
To raise us up.

✠ DEVOTIONAL VIGNETTE ✠

TODAY'S LITURGY is concerned in a very special way with the newly baptized, who, [in ancient times,] at the close of Easter week, laid aside the white garments which they had received at the baptismal font. It is actually to them that S. Peter addressed his affectionate recommendation which we read in the Introit of the Mass: "As newborn babies, desire the pure spiritual milk." These words continue to express the maternal solicitude of the Church for the children whom she has regenerated in Christ, and especially for the newly born. We, too, are the object of this solicitude. Although we were baptized as infants, we can say that every Easter regenerates us in Christ by means of our spiritual resurrection in Him. Therefore, we also must be like "newborn babies," in whom there is no malice, deceit, pride, or presumption, but only candor and simplicity, confidence and love. This is a wonderful invitation to the spiritual childhood which Jesus told us is an indispensable condition for attaining salvation: "Unless you be converted and become as little children, you shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven" (S. Matthew 18:3). Each wave of grace purifies and cleanses our soul from sin and its roots, giving us rebirth to a new life in Christ, a pure, innocent life, which craves only "the pure spiritual milk" of the doctrine of Christ, His love and His grace. Today, however, the church wishes to turn our desires in a very special way toward faith: that faith which makes us cling to Jesus so as to be taught by Him, and nourished and guided toward eternal life. The Master’s words upon which we meditated last week are equally appropriate here: “He that believeth in me... from within him shall flow rivers of living water... springing up into life everlasting” (S. John 7:38-4:14). Let us draw near to Jesus with the simple, sincere faith of a little child, and He will give us the abundance of His grace as a pledge of eternal life.
