Notice of Special Vestry

SUNDAY, 22 JUNE, 2025 AFTER SOLEMN MASS
(APPROXIMATELY 12:40 P.M.)

The sole purpose of the Special Vestry is to elect a Lay Member of Synod (and alternate) to represent S. Bartholomew's at Diocesan Synod in November and any electoral Synod that may be called from time to time to elect a new diocesan or suffragan bishop. No other matter shall be discussed at the Special Vestry so the meeting will be very brief. The parish's Executive Committee is soliciting nominees.

Those eligible to vote are members of the Anglican Church of Canada and of S. Bartholomew's for at least three (3) months, have attended regularly scheduled services of worship with S. Bartholomew's at least three (3) times in the past year, and are of the full age of sixteen (16) years and have not voted as a member of any other vestry during the previous three (3) months, and do not intend to vote in any other vestry during the ensuing year (Canon 14).

✠ SABBATICAL NOTE ✠

FATHER HANNAM is currently away for a four-month sabbatical. He has now been pastoring S. Bart's for more than a decade, a period during which we've faced some unexpected challenges (covid!), but during which we've also been encouraged to see growth in both numbers and devotion. Please join together in praying that this period will serve to refresh and inspire our Vicar. Father Hannam will return in time to celebrate our Patronal Festival with us at the end of August.

During this time, we are grateful to be in the good hands of Father David Brinton OGS, who is known and loved by us already at S. Bart's. Pastoral emergencies and parish matters may be directed to Fr. Brinton (416-553-1905, davidbrinton97@gmail.com).

✠ POETRY CORNER ✠

TRINITY SUNDAY

by Malcolm Guite (1957-)

In the Beginning, not in time or space,
But in the quick before both space and time,
In Life, in Love, in co-inherent Grace,

In three in one and one in three, in rhyme,
In music, in the whole creation story,
In His own image, His imagination,
The Triune Poet makes us for His glory,
And makes us each the other's inspiration.
He calls us out of darkness, chaos, chance,
To improvise a music of our own,
To sing the chord that calls us to the dance,
Three notes resounding from a single tone,
To sing the End in whom we all begin;
Our God beyond, beside us and within.

✠ DEVOTIONAL VIGNETTE ✠

WHEN we try to pray, what happens? Initially, we experience emptiness, obscurity, distraction. Then perhaps we have a dim awareness that the activity of prayer, which at first we take to be of our making, is actually the activity of Another. We have the sense of being “prayed in”; we realize that on the deepest level it is not we who pray, but God who is praying in us. And God who so prays within us is specifically God the Trinity. We find ourselves caught up into a conversation that is already in progress—a divine conversation, the eternal dialogue of the Trinity.

We each hear God the Father saying to us personally, “You are my beloved Son”; we become children in the Son, and through the Spirit we make our own filial response, “Abba, Father.” Such is the significance of the doctrine of the Trinity. God is love—not self-love but mutual, shared love. God is exchange, self-giving, solidarity. If that is indeed what the doctrine of the Trinity is saying, then manifestly it is no mere piece of abstract speculation, devoid of practical content, but something that has startling, revolutionary consequences for our own personhood. It is concerned with matters of life and death—of eternal life and eternal death.
