Special Vestry Meeting

TODAY: SUNDAY, 22 JUNE, 2025
(AFTER SOLEMN MASS)

The sole purpose of the Special Vestry is to elect a Lay Member of Synod (and alternate) to represent S. Bartholomew's at Diocesan Synod in November and any electoral Synod that may be called from time to time to elect a new diocesan or suffragan bishop. No other matter shall be discussed at the Special Vestry so the meeting will be very brief. The parish's Executive Committee is soliciting nominees.

Those eligible to vote are members of the Anglican Church of Canada and of S. Bartholomew's for at least three (3) months, have attended regularly scheduled services of worship with S. Bartholomew's at least three (3) times in the past year, and are of the full age of sixteen (16) years and have not voted as a member of any other vestry during the previous three (3) months, and do not intend to vote in any other vestry during the ensuing year (Canon 14).

“PEACE BOOT CAMP”: S. John the Compassionate Mission is a partner in ministry within our neighbourhood, and S. Bart's is pleased to assist in promoting their upcoming “Peace Boot Camp,” which will take place from 20-23 July, 2025, and which is open to young men between the ages of 16 and 40 who have demonstrated experience of community life. For further details, including cost and itinerary, please visit: stbartstoronto.ca/peace-boot-camp.

✠ SABBATICAL NOTE ✠

FATHER HANNAM is currently away for a four-month sabbatical. He has now been pastoring S. Bart's for more than a decade, a period during which we've faced some unexpected challenges (covid!), but during which we've also been encouraged to see growth in both numbers and devotion. Please join together in praying that this period will serve to refresh and inspire our Vicar. Father Hannam will return in time to celebrate our Patronal Festival with us at the end of August.

During this time, we are grateful to be in the good hands of Father David Brinton OGS, who is known and loved by us already at S. Bart's. Pastoral emergencies and parish matters may be directed to Fr. Brinton (416-553-1905, davidbrinton97@gmail.com).

✠ POETRY CORNER ✠

THIS TABLE

by Malcolm Guite (1957-)

The centuries have settled on this table
Deepened the grain beneath a clean white cloth
Which bears afresh our changing elements.
Year after year of prayer, in hope and trouble,
Were poured out here and blessed and broken, both
In aching absence and in absent presence.

This table too the earth herself has given
And human hands have made. Where candle-flame
At corners burns and turns the air to light

The oak once held its branches up to heaven,
Blessing the elements which it became,
Rooting the dew and rain, branching the light.
Because another tree can bear, unbearable,
For us, the weight of Love, so can this table.

✠ DEVOTIONAL VIGNETTE ✠

WE have gone, step by step, in the course of the liturgical year, from the consideration of the mysteries of the life of Jesus to the contemplation of the Blessed Trinity, whose feast we celebrated last Sunday. Jesus, our Mediator, our Way, has taken us by the hand and led us to the Trinity; and today it seems as though the three Persons Themselves wish to take us back to Jesus, considered in His Eucharist. “No man cometh to the Father but by me” (John 14:6), Jesus said, and He added, “no man can come to me except the Father... draw him” (ibid. 6:44). This is the journey of the Christian soul: from Jesus to the Father, to the Trinity; from the Trinity, from the Father, to Jesus. Jesus brings us to the Father, the Father draws us to Jesus. The Christian cannot do without Christ; He is, in the strictest sense of the word, our Pontiff, the great Bridge-builder who has spanned the abyss between God and us. At the end of the liturgical cycle in which we commemorate the mysteries of the Savior, the Church, who like a good Mother knows that our spiritual life cannot subsist without Jesus, leads us to Him, really and truly present in the Most Holy Sacrament of the altar. The solemnity of the Corpus Domini is not just the simple memorial of an historical event which took place almost two thousand years ago at the Last Supper; rather, it recalls to us the ever-present reality of Jesus always living in our midst. We can say, in truth, that He has not “left us orphans,” but has willed to remain permanently with us, in the integrity of His Person in the fulness of His humanity and His divinity. “There is no other nation so great,” the Divine Office enthusiastically sings, “as to have its gods so near as our God is present to us” (Roman Breviary). In the Eucharist, Jesus is really Emmanuel, God with us.
