PATRONAL FESTIVAL 2025:

S. Bartholomew's Day falls on Sunday this year (24 August). Fr. Hannam will be back from sabbath leave to lead the parish in this year's celebration of our Patron — a single service beginning at 10:30 a.m.

Invite a friend!

Please consider inviting a friend to Mass on August 24. Beautiful invitation cards have been prepared and are available at the back of the church.

AT OUR SISTER PARISHES: The Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary (Friday, 15 August) will be celebrated at S. Mary Magdalene's (Ulster & Manning) with Procession and Solemn Mass at 7 p.m., and at S. Thomas's Huron Street (Huron south of Bloor) with High Mass at 6:30 p.m.

FATHER HANNAM IS CURRENTLY AWAY for a four-month sabbatical. He has now been pastoring S. Bart's for more than a decade, a period during which we've faced some unexpected challenges (covid!), but during which we've also been encouraged to see growth in both numbers and devotion. Please join together in praying that this period will serve to refresh and inspire our Vicar. Father Hannam will return in time to celebrate our Patronal Festival with us at the end of August. During this time, we are grateful to be in the good hands of Father David Brinton OGS, who is known and loved by us already at S. Bart's. Pastoral emergencies and parish matters may be directed to Fr. Brinton (416-553-1905, davidbrinton97@gmail.com).

❖ POETRY CORNER ❖

THE GOOD SHEPHERD

by Malcolm Guite (1957-)

When so much shepherding has gone so wrong,
So many pastors hopelessly astray,
The weak so often preyed on by the strong,
So many bruised and broken on the way,
The very name of shepherd seems besmeared,
The fold and flock themselves are torn in half,
The lambs we left to face all we have feared
Are caught between the wasters and the wolf.

Good Shepherd now your flock has need of you,
One finds the fold and ninety-nine are lost
Out in the darkness and the icy dew,
And no one knows how long this night will last.
Restore us; call us back to you by name,
And by your life laid down, redeem our shame.

✠ DEVOTIONAL VIGNETTE ✠

CLOTHE me, O God, with the green garment of hope. A living hope in You gives the soul such ardour, so much courage and longing for the things of eternal life that, by comparison with what it hopes for, all things of the world seem to it to be, as in truth they are, dry, faded, dead, and without value. Give me then, a strong hope, O my God, so that it may strip me of all the vanities of the world, that I may not set my heart upon anything that is in the world, nor hope for anything, but live clad only in the hope of eternal life. Let hope be the helmet of salvation which will protect my head from the wounds of the enemy, and will direct my gaze to heaven allowing me to fix my eyes on You alone, my God. As the eyes of the handmaid are set upon the hands of her mistress, even so are my eyes set upon You, until You take pity on me because of my hope. Grant that I may set my eyes on naught but You, nor be pleased with aught but You alone. Then You will be pleased with me, and I shall be able to say in all truth that I receive from You as much as I hope for.” (S. John of the Cross)

I N order to understand the greatness of Your divinity, O Lord, I need faith; and in order to accomplish anything, I need hope, for if I did not have hope of possessing You some day, I would not have the strength to labour here below... “O God, give me a firm hope, for I cannot be saved unless this virtue is firmly rooted in my soul. I need it in order to implore pardon for my sins and to attain my end. What delight hope gives to my soul, making it hope for what it will one day enjoy in heaven, and by permitting it a partial taste here on earth of what it will savour, understand, and possess eternally, which is You, my God.” (S. Mary Magdalen dei Pazzi)
