SUNDAY, 17 AUGUST, 2025

PLEASE TAKE THIS HOME

SUNDAY SERVICES IN SUMMER: Please note that during the summer months of July and August S. Bart's has one weekly service—on Sundays. This is a Sung Mass at 10:30 a.m. Weekday Masses and Morning Prayer are on hiatus.

Heartfelt Thanks

Today, we offer thanks and praise to Almighty God for the faithful ministry of Father David Brinton who has served as priest-in-charge at S. Barts during the past four months of Fr. Hannam's sabbatical leave. Truly he is a priest after the order of Melchisedech and a faithful minister of the mysteries of Christ. We are grateful for Fr. Brinton's ministry in our midst, for his loving care for the parish, his excellence as a pastor, as a celebrant and preacher. God has truly been gracious unto us in his ministry. May God continue to raise up faithful priests to lead his people in the way of salvation. We wish Father David a restful and restorative holiday and pray that the Lord will send him back to us renewed in strength and zeal for the salvation of souls.

SPECIAL LUNCHEON: Please join us in the Parish Hall following today's service as we say "thank you" to Canon Brinton for being with us over the past four months. We'll also be bidding a fond farewell to Quinn Kiervin, who is moving to Edmonton. We hope she'll visit us before long.

FATHER HANNAM IS CURRENTLY AWAY for a four-month sabbatical. Please continue to pray that this period will serve to refresh and inspire our Vicar. Father Hannam will return in time to celebrate our Patronal Festival with us at the end of August. During this time, we are grateful to be in the good hands of Father David Brinton OGS, who is known and loved by us already at S. Bart's. Pastoral emergencies and parish matters may be directed to Fr. Brinton (416-553-1905, davidbrinton97@gmail.com).

✠ POETRY CORNER ✠

THOU ART INDEED JUST, LORD

by Gerard Manley Hopkins (1844-1889)

Thou art indeed just, Lord, if I contend
With thee; but, sir, so what I plead is just.
Why do sinners' ways prosper? and why must Disappointment all I endeavour end?
Wert thou my enemy, O thou my friend,
How wouldst thou worse, I wonder, than thou dost
Defeat, thwart me? Oh, the sots and thralls of lust
Do in spare hours more thrive than I that spend,
Sir, life upon thy cause. See, banks and brakes
Now, leavèd how thick! lacèd they are again
With fretty chervil, look, and fresh wind shakes
Them; birds build – but not I build; no, but strain,
Time's eunuch, and not breed one work that wakes.
Mine, O thou lord of life, send my roots rain.

✠ DEVOTIONAL VIGNETTE ✠

If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches? And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own?

- S. Luke 16:11-12

IN the meantime, let us cast aside, once and forever, that most unworthy and unchristian way of saying or thinking, "I will do what I will with mine own."

Too many think in this way of their worldly substance, be it more or less: rich men think they are free to please themselves with their riches; poor men think the same of their bodily health, their time, skill, and strength, which are in fact their riches on earth. We are all too apt to say, “It is mine own: who has any right to challenge my doing what I will with it?”

But you and I, my brethren, if we would be good and happy, must entirely leave off all such words and thoughts. We have nothing of our own in this world: how should we, since we ourselves are not our own, but bought with a price? And again, how should we, since the things of this world are not real things, but shadows only, for a time, of great and true and eternal blessings to come?

CHRIST’S merciful purpose in teaching us these things will be accomplished, if we will begin this day, and go on every day of our lives, to use every thing as being not our own, but His: and if we will every night on our knees give an account to Him of our stewardship for that day: certain as we are that the time must soon come when we shall be no longer stewards.

- from “The True Riches”, Sermon XXVI,
by The Rev’d John Keble, Sermons for the Christian Year
