NARTHEX RENOVATION NOW UNDERWAY! During the construction work taking place on the main entrance to S. Bart's, it will not be possible to access to the church via the usual doors on Dundas Street. During the next few weeks and until further notice, please enter the church using the south entrance from the parking lot. To access this entrance from Dundas Street, walk south from the east end of the church, and enter through the gates immediately behind the east wall of the sanctuary. Follow the path westward to the south entrance. We regret the inconvenience this will cause to all of you, but thank you for your cooperation. We're confident that this upgrade will result in a big improvement to the 'first impression' people get of S. Bart's, and expect the project to be complete in time for Back to Church Sunday.

THE BREAKFAST PROGRAMME continues each Thursday. The doors open at 5:30 a.m. until 8:00 a.m., and hot food is served beginning at 6:00 a.m. There will be no change to Breakfast Programme hours this summer. However, we will be closed on Thursdays, 6 August.

PLANNING TO GET AWAY THIS SUMMER?

S. Bart's ministry still needs your support. Pre-authorized donation (PAD) ensures that you can maintain a consistent commitment to the parish year-round and avoid having to "catch up" after your holiday. Of course if you need to pause your pre-authorized donation for any reason an email to Miles Nagamatsu, Parish Treasurer (stbarttoronto@outlook.com), who will put it on hold until you let him know things are back on track, or that you need to adjust your details. If you would like to set up PAD, please email Miles for a fillable PDF form.

✠ POETRY CORNER ✠

THOU ART INDEED JUST, LORD

by Gerard Manley Hopkins (1844-1889)

Thou art indeed just, Lord, if I contend
With thee; but, sir, so what I plead is just.
Why do sinners' ways prosper? and why must Disappointment all I endeavour end?
Wert thou my enemy, O thou my friend,
How wouldst thou worse, I wonder, than thou dost
Defeat, thwart me? Oh, the sots and thralls of lust
Do in spare hours more thrive than I that spend,
Sir, life upon thy cause. See, banks and brakes
Now, leavèd how thick! lacèd they are again
With fretty chervil, look, and fresh wind shakes
Them; birds build – but not I build; no, but strain,
Time's eunuch, and not breed one work that wakes.
Mine, O thou lord of life, send my roots rain.

✠ DEVOTIONAL VIGNETTE ✠

If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches? And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own?

- S. Luke 16:11-12

IN the meantime, let us cast aside, once and forever, that most unworthy and unchristian way of saying or thinking, "I will do what I will with mine own."

Too many think in this way of their worldly substance, be it more or less: rich men think they are free to please themselves with their riches; poor men think the same of their bodily health, their time, skill, and strength, which are in fact their riches on earth. We are all too apt to say, “It is mine own: who has any right to challenge my doing what I will with it?”

But you and I, my brethren, if we would be good and happy, must entirely leave off all such words and thoughts. We have nothing of our own in this world: how should we, since we ourselves are not our own, but bought with a price? And again, how should we, since the things of this world are not real things, but shadows only, for a time, of great and true and eternal blessings to come?

CHRIST’S merciful purpose in teaching us these things will be accomplished, if we will begin this day, and go on every day of our lives, to use every thing as being not our own, but His: and if we will every night on our knees give an account to Him of our stewardship for that day: certain as we are that the time must soon come when we shall be no longer stewards.

- from “The True Riches”, Sermon XXVI,
by The Rev’d John Keble, Sermons for the Christian Year
