PLANNING TO GET AWAY THIS SUMMER?

S. Bart's ministry still needs your support. Pre-authorised donation (PAD) ensures that you can maintain a consistent commitment to the parish year-round and avoid having to "catch up" after your holiday. Of course if you need to pause your pre-authorised donation for any reason an email to Miles Nagamatsu, Parish Treasurer (stbarttoronto@outlook.com), who will put it on hold until you let him know things are back on track, or that you need to adjust your details. If you would like to set up PAD, please email Miles for a fillable PDF form.

CLEANSING THE TEMPLE

by Malcolm Guite (1957- )

Come to your Temple here with liberation
And overturn these tables of exchange
Restore in me my lost imagination
Begin in me for good, the pure change.
Come as you came, an infant with your mother,
That innocence may cleanse and claim this ground
Come as you came, a boy who sought his father
With questions asked and certain answers found,
Come as you came this day, a man in anger
Unleash the lash that drives a pathway through
Face down for me the fear the shame the danger
Teach me again to whom my love is due.
Break down in me the barricades of death
And tear the veil in two with your last breath.

✠ DEVOTIONAL VIGNETTE ✠

THE Gospel (Luke 19:41-47) shows us Jesus weeping over Jerusalem. The Creator, the Lord, the Redeemer weeps over the ruin of His creatures, the people whom He has loved with predilection, even choosing them as the companions of His earthly life, and whom He had desired to save at any price.

“Jerusalem, Jerusalem... how often would I have gathered together thy children as the hen doth gather her chickens under her wings, and thou wouldst not!” (Matthew 23:37). This was the constant attitude of Jesus toward the holy city, but it always remained blind to every light, deaf to every invitation, and the Saviour, shortly before going to His Passion, broke forth into His last sorrowful admonition: “If thou also hadst known and that in this thy day, the things that are to thy peace!” But again the city resists, and Jesus, after having loved it so much, and after having wept over it as a mother weeps over her son who has gone astray, predicts its ruin: “Thy enemies... shall not leave in thee a stone upon a stone, because thou hast not known the time of thy visitation.”

Do you know how to recognize the moment in which Our Lord visits your soul? A word read or heard, perhaps even by chance, an edifying example, an interior inspiration, a new light which makes you see your faults more clearly and opens new horizons of virtue and of good — all are visits from Jesus. And you, how do you correspond? Is your soul sensitive to these lights, to these admonitions? Do you not sometimes turn your gaze away, fearing that the light you have glimpsed may ask you for sacrifices which are too painful for your self-love?

Oh! if you had always recognized the moment in which the Lord visited you! If you had always been open to His action! Try then to begin again today, resolve to commence anew each time that you happen to give in to nature. “The things that are to your peace,” your good, your sanctification, are precisely here, in this continual adherence to the impulses of grace.
