PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

For the week of Sunday 25 October 2026

PLEASE TAKE THIS HOME

Father Hannam requests that all cases of sorrow or suffering be reported to him.

PLEASE JOIN US FOR COFFEE HOUR following the 11 o'clock Parish Mass! We meet in the Parish Hall, down the front stairs and to the right.

MARK YOUR CALENDAR: A few liturgies coming up to make note of:

- Next Sunday, 1 November: All Saints
- Monday, 2 November, 6:30 p.m.: All Souls
- Sunday, 8 November: Remembrance Sunday (Trinity 23)
- Wednesday, 11 November at 6:30 p.m.: Martinmas

"FALL BACK" IS COMING UP! Please remember to set your clocks back one hour for next Sunday, 1 November, when Daylight Saving Time will end.

DEVOTIONAL SOCIETIES: Please note that there will be a meeting of members of all Catholic Devotional Societies (Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament, Guild of All Souls, Society of Mary, Society of Our Lady of Walsingham, Society of King Charles the Martyr) on Sunday 8, November (Remembrance Sunday) to discuss this year's activities. If you are a member of any of the Guilds you are encouraged to attend so that we can take everyone's availability into account when planning events. Anyone who is interested in the work of any of the Devotional Societies may also attend to receive more information.

THE "SEASON OF INVITATION" WILL CONTINUE: We plan to prepare invitations for the upcoming season of Advent. Please give some thought and prayer to who you might invite.

NARTHEX RENOVATION NOW UNDERWAY! Until further notice, please enter the church using the south entrance from the parking lot. We regret the inconvenience this causes, but thank you for your cooperation. This upgrade will result in a big improvement to the 'first impression' people get of S. Bart's. We expect the project will be complete very soon.

THE FOOD BANK: The Food Bank is open every Monday and Thursday from 10:00 a.m. until 12:00 p.m.

THE BREAKFAST PROGRAMME continues each Thursday. The doors open at 5:30 a.m. until 8:00 a.m., and hot food is served beginning at 6 a.m.

DEVOTIONAL VIGNETTE

TODAY the Church celebrates Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. This solemnity comes at the end of the liturgical year and brings together the mystery of Jesus "firstborn from the dead and ruler of the kings of the earth," extending our gaze towards the full realisation of the Kingdom of God, when God will be all in all (1 Corinthians 15:28). S. Cyril of Jerusalem says: "We announce not only the first coming of Christ, but also a second which is much more beautiful than the first. The first, in fact, was a manifestation of suffering, the second brings the diadem of divine kingship… in the first, He was subject to the humiliation of the Cross, in the second He is surrounded and glorified by a host of angels." All the mission of Jesus and the contents of His message consist in announcing the Kingdom of God and implementing it among men through signs and wonders. But above all, the Kingdom is made manifest through the person of Christ, who established it through His death on the Cross and His Resurrection, whereby He showed Himself to be the Lord and Messiah, the High Priest for eternity. This Kingdom of God was entrusted to the Church, which is the "seed" and the "beginning," and has the task of announcing it and spreading it amongst all peoples through the strength of the Holy Spirit. At the end of time, the Lord will deliver the Kingdom to God the Father and will present to Him all those who have lived according to the commandment of love.

Dear friends, we are all called to prolong God's saving work by converting ourselves to the Gospel, by placing ourselves with conviction in the footsteps of that King who came not to be served but to serve and to bear witness to the truth (Mark 10:45, John 18:37)... May the Virgin help each one of us to live this present time as we await the return of the Lord, as we decisively pray to God: "Your Kingdom come," and as we carry out those works of light which bring us ever closer to Heaven, knowing that, in the tormented affairs of history, God continues to build His Kingdom of love.

- Pope Benedict XVI, Angelus for the feast of Christ the King

POETRY CORNER

CHRIST THE KING

by Malcolm Guite (1953 -)

Our King is calling from the hungry furrows
Whilst we are cruising through the aisles of plenty,
Our hoardings screen us from the man of sorrows,
Our soundtracks drown his murmur: 'I am thirsty'.
He stands in line to sign in as a stranger
And seek a welcome from the world he made,
We see him only as a threat, a danger,
He asks for clothes, we strip-search him instead.
And if he should fall sick then we take care
That he does not infect our private health,
We lock him in the prisons of our fear
Lest he unlock the prison of our wealth.
But still on Sunday we shall stand and sing
The praises of our hidden Lord and King.
